

Are you a Single Mother? ...then THIS is for YOU!

Single Women in Motherhood is working to understand more about the needs that single mom families face today. We want to hear YOUR opinion about what should be offered for single women and their children in the community.

We are looking for mothers to participate in a group discussion to help us know what you need so we can better serve our community.

Join us for a single moms' focus group and help us answer these questions!

- What Do You Need?
- How Can We Help?
